Consider others as better than yourselves; look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others.
-Philippians 2:1-11 [1-5]

REFLECTIONS:

FAMILIAR INSIGHTS

Spiritual teachers tend to repeat themselves, and to repeat other teachers. Maybe there really aren't that many different truths to tell. Just a lot of slow, sleepy human beings—like us—who need to hear the basics over and over. Consider today's readings.

People complain God isn't "fair," and Ezekiel answers that God is more than fair. People choose their own fates, and people can change. Even evildoers can turn, do right, and live. "Actions speak louder than words." A fresh new insight? Hardly.

Paul tells the Philippians that he would truly be encouraged if those who claimed to be believers would, in fact, look to others' interests and not their own. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." A novel idea? I don't think so.

In Jesus' story of the farmer and his sons, everyone knows that the one who said he wouldn't work—but did—is way ahead of the one who said he would work—but didn't. "Talk is cheap." Heard that before?

Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire You with all my heart.
Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already in my heart and unite myself to You completely.
Please do not let me ever be separated from You.
Amen.

Ahora tenemos misales in Espanol. Nuestros Hispano hablantes los pueden encounter en la entrada de la iglesia. St Bernard-Hedwig and Holy Rosary.

The diocese has an Estate Planning Guide that can help people save several hundred dollars in legal and financial estate planning costs. The Planned Giving website is http://diolclegacy.org/. There you can find calculators, additional information, and sign up for a newsletter, as well as request copies of specific estate planning guides and information.

SCRIBBLINGS

Be Healthy….A Way of Help
Your inner child is that innermost part of you, the "original" you, that still sees and responds to the world as an innocent (sometimes, wounded) child does.
It doesn't really matter if you're familiar with the term or not. An open letter to your inner child might be everything you didn't even know you needed to hear.
That's especially true if you've been through some stuff, the kind of stuff that takes a lifetime to heal.
Inner child work (whether you sit with yourself or a therapist) involves addressing emotions and experiences from your childhood--in a sense, dialoguing with your younger self--so you can find and heal the roots of chronic pain and reoccurring issues in adulthood.
Writing a letter to your inner child is one way to heal your relationship with the past.
In Christian terms we call it examination of conscience. The saints did this every day and found help to change their lives and came out of hurts and contradictions.
At this time of uncertainty and changes, a visit with our inner child would help us to be healthy.

CCD
Our DRE will send letters to initiate conducting the CCD classes. We are in need of some CCD teachers. If you feel that you are called for it, kindly call me or the DRE.
Be Blessed.
Fr. Baskaran

Our deepest sympathies to the family of Joe Lato who will be laid to rest in a Christian buriel on Monday, September 28, 2020 at St. Bernard-St, Hedwig Church. Please keep Joe and his family in your prayers.

Holy Rosary Parking Lot Project
Goal: $86,000 - Received $35,567.65

From The Desk of SBSH's DRE
Do you pray first thing in th morning? I try to. One of my favorite waking-up prayers is a Morning Offering that begins: "Dear Lord, I do not know what will happen to me today. I only know that nothing will happen that was not foreseen by you and directed to my greater good from all eternity." It's a good reminder that all that comes to us, even the unexpected, comes through God's will...be it something he plays a part in causing (prescriptive) or something he allows (permissive).

An update on CCD:
Of course, the pandemic has placed many unexpected things in our path as we are considering this year's CCD. I m in the midst of conversation with CCD teachers, with Father Baskaran, and with parish and school staff to try to formulate a workable and reasonably safe plan for CCD. I hope to be in touch with parents soon to gather your input, as well. I thank you in advance for your patience! God bless!

The Eau Claire County Chapter of Wisconsin Right to Life is sponsoring the annual Life Chain on Sunday, October 4th, from 2:30-4:00pm. Life Chain is a peaceful witness and prayer vigil on behalf of unborn children whose lives are threatened by abortion. Get your pro-life sign at the Regis High School parking lot, and then stand with us along South Hastings Way as we pray for an end to abortion. All participants should wear a mask and practice social distancing.
