Ten lepers are healed by Jesus, but only one, a Samaritan, returns to give him thanks.

-Luke 17:11-19

REFLECTIONS:

HEALING AND SALVATION

The readings today speak of healing and salvation. In Second Kings, Naaman, a commander of the army of the king of Syria, develops leprosy. He goes to a stranger, a prophet from Israel, when no one else can cure his disease. Much to his surprise, after a simple bath in the river, he is cured. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus cures ten lepers and sends them to the priest. Only one, a Samaritan, returns to thank Jesus for his cure and only he hears the words, "Your faith has saved you." The psalm and Timothy remind us that salvation involves justice, kindness, and faithfulness and forever links us with Jesus. In a world as broken as ours, both healing and salvation are necessary.

SCRIBBLINGS

Rcently I read an article which is sent by The Men's Group in Tomah. The group meets every Wednesday to share their experiences on various topics. The recent one is about Russian Stalin's daughter, Svetlana. Thank you Joanathan for the link: https://www.catholiceducation.org/en/religion-and-philosophy/apologetics/when-joseph-stalin-s-daughter-became-catholic html#.XZvzP8syJkQ.gmail. I was inspird with her sharing of experience with God and the Catholic Church. Svetlana wrote about her conversion: "Only now I understand the wonderful grace that the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist produce, no matter what day of the year, and even on a daily basis. Before, I was unwilling to forgive and repent, and I was never able to love my enemies. But I feel very different from before, since I attend Mass every day." She added, "The Eucharist has given me life. The Sacrament of Penance with God whom...we abandon and betray each day, the sense of guilt and sadness that invades us then, all this makes it necessary to receive it frequently." This woman, who grew up essentially motherless, wrote, "I was taken into the arms of the Blessed Virgin Mary….Who else could be my advocate but the Mother of Jesus? She suddenly drew me close to her." Is it not a good witness? What an experience with sacraments and Mary!!
Be well.
Fr. Baskaran
