Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory! (Philippians 2:8-9)

Eucharistic Revival-week of April 13, 2025-Palm Sunday. A Minute with Jesus. Jesus wants to live in our heart always. At the Last Supper, Jesus gave His Apostles – the first priests – the command to repeat His actions and words: to “do this in memory of Me.” The presence of Christ, by the change of bread and wine in becoming His Body and Blood, takes place by the power of Jesus’ Word and the Holy Spirit. The priest, in the role of Christ through his ordination, pronounces the words of Jesus but their power and grace are God’s. At Mass, as the priest speaks the words of Jesus, the bread and wine become His Body and Blood by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus wants us to receive Him at Mass every Sunday because He wants to live in our heart. Let’s pray this right now and every day this week. Thank you, Jesus for Father Stan, as he stands in for You, and thereby, we are able to receive You in Holy Communion at Mass. This week, read the passage of Jesus instituting the Holy Eucharist at the Last Supper in Matthew 26:26-28.

Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools & offer religious education. Also, helps preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity.

Pastor writes...
Why do we veil images during Lent?
 As we journey deeper into Lent, a noticeable change occurs in many of our churches: statues, sacred images, and even the crucifix are veiled in purple cloth. This tradition, rich with symbolism, often stirs curiosity and prompts the faithful to ask: Why do we veil images during Lent?
 In the Dioceses of the United States, the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the church from the fifth Sunday of Lent may be observed. Crosses remain covered until the end of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, but images remain covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.
 The final two weeks of Lent are known as Passiontide, beginning on the Fifth Sunday of Lent. Passiontide marks a solemn shift in focus from the broader themes of penance and conversion to the intense contemplation of Christ's Passion and suffering.
 This veiling is not merely decorative or traditional. It is intentionally disorienting. The sudden absence of familiar images calls us to a deeper spiritual awareness. It is as if the Church is inviting us to feel the weight of loss to walk with Christ through His betrayal, suffering, and death, with our senses sharpened by absence.
 The veils remind us that something is hidden and we long to see it revealed. This echoes our inner longing for Easter, for the Resurrection, for the unveiling of the glory of Christ. Veiling symbolizes the spiritual exile of humanity, a longing for our true and eternal home in God. The veils serve as a visual call to immediate preparation: Get ready, something profound is about to happen.
 One of the most striking aspects of this tradition is that even the crucifix is veiled. Why would we cover the crucifix during Passiontide? In veiling the crucifix, we enter into the growing tension and drama of the Passion narrative. The veil creates an intentional absence that makes us ache for the reappearance of our crucified and Risen Lord.
 When the veils are finally removed at the Easter Vigil, symbolism reaches its climax. Light returns to the darkened church, Alleluia resounds once more, and the images that had been hidden from our sight are revealed in splendor. This unveiling mirrors the Resurrection itself. As Christ rose from the tomb, the veil between God and man was torn open. The separation caused by sin was overcome.
 We are reminded that this world is not our home in full. We live, even now, in a kind of veiled reality, awaiting the fullness of the Kingdom of God. Through the Resurrection, Christ lifts that veil and reveals to us the promise of eternal life.
 So, as you enter the church and see the purple veils draped over holy images, let it stir your heart. Let it remind you of the sacrifice Christ made for us, and the glorious joy that awaits when the veil is finally lifted.

 Celebrating this Spring!
 Many thanks to those who purchased Kwik Trip Car Wash Cards. We raised about $3,000 for TCS! We are quickly approaching our next fundraising event. We are celebrating 75 Years of Catholic Education at Thorp Catholic School. On April 26, we will be hosting a Chicken Dinner, having raffle baskets, carnival type games for kids, and live music provided by our very own Jerry Teclaw. This will be a fun family event that we hope you will all join us.
 The next school Mass will be on Wednesday, April 16 at 8:15am led by the 5th/6th graders. We will be hosting a Grandparents/Special Person afternoon on Thursday, April 17. The school Mass the week after is Wednesday, April 23 at 8:15am led by the 3rd/4th grade.
 There are still some calendar raffles available so stop at the scrip table or TCS office if you still need one, but they are selling out fast. We will be praying that you all have a very blessed Holy Week and a wonderful start to your Easter season.
 In Christ.

Lent: Reclaim your joy! As we enter this last week of Lent - the holiest week of the year - it is essential to make a good confession before the feast of Easter. We need the strength of God's grace received in the sacrament of reconciliation to persevere in setting aside our phones for at least 15 minutes each day. Further, God will bless us in what we ask of Him in psalm 51: 12-14 A clean heart create for me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me. Cast me not out from Your presence, and Your Holy Spirit take not from me. Give me back the joy of Your salvation, and a willing spirit sustain in me. May our Holy Week be a time of quiet reflection as we remain close to Jesus through His grueling Passion, torturous Death and glorious Resurrection, all for love of us!
